Powder River's 35th Auction & Social Hour

Just in time for the Christmas Holiday, Powder River's Silent Auction has something for everyone. Donations include original artwork by Ellen Dudley, Victoria Bales, Handmade and Heirloom Jewelry, Sporting Goods and Outdoor Trips, Antiques and Collectibles and Lots More.

If you're attending Powder River's annual meeting, you can take advantage of a special, $64 per night room rate we've negotiated for you. Call the Sheridan Holiday Inn at 307-672-8931 ahead of time and mention that you're coming for Powder River's meeting.

Agenda

9:30 Registration Opens

10:00-12:00 Annual Business Meeting — Powder River Members Only

Noon-1:00 Luncheon/Speech: A Tale of Two States

Powder River Board Chair Bob LeResche compares the differing paths Wyoming and Alaska have taken toward managing energy development.

1:30- 2:30 The Future of Coal—And What It Means for Us

Stacy Page, Powder River member and reclamation specialist for the Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality, on 30 years of experience with the Federal Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act; Eric Redman, Seattle energy attorney, on innovative approaches to coal-fired power generation; and Marion Loomis, executive director of the Wyoming Mining Association, on coal's role in the state.

2:30-3:00 Eminent Domain Reform—Past, Present, and Future

Donley Darnell, chairman of Powder River's Agriculture Committee, board chairman of the Western Organization of Resource Councils and a leader in the Landowners Association of Wyoming, looks at where this issue is today—and where it needs to go in the future.

3:15-4:45 The Outfall Fallout: Managing Discharges Without Waste

Kate Fox, Powder River attorney, on our citizen-led water-management rulemaking campaign before the Wyoming Environmental Quality Council; a look inside the EQC by Mark Gordon, Powder River member and former council member; and a preview of what the Legislature will do from State Sen. Bruce Burns, member of the Legislature's CBM Task Force

5:00-7:00 Social Hour and Silent Auction

7:15 Dinner and Guest Speaker Gerry Spence

Wyoming's best-known "Country Lawyer" on Defending Victory: Demanding Justice From Powerful Foes

A limited number of books by Gerry Spence will be available for purchase at the Annual Meeting, and the author has agreed to sign them after his speech.
